A Touch of Ivory is one of the most requested musical providers in Southern California. We specialize in creating the right atmosphere with music for your wedding, corporate event, fund-raiser or party. Music is an important part of any special event. It can create that perfect ambiance and beautifully communicate your theme or mood.

At A Touch of Ivory, we contract the finest musicians in the area, and will work with you to match your specific needs. We offer a variety of options to fit your style and budget.

If you are looking for classically-trained professional musicians (many of whom play in the finest symphonic orchestras of the area and record with the best at recording studios in Hollywood), look no further!

Our service includes personal consultation to help you achieve just the right atmosphere for your special occasion. Our professionals will provide suggestions and work with you to help develop a memorable theme, and then keep all the music details, large and small, at the actual event running smoothly.

At A Touch of Ivory we are very detail and customer service oriented. This is one of the reasons we are highly recommended by past clients. We are on the preferred vendors list of many of the best hotels and event sites in the Inland Empire area, including The Historic Mission Inn. We're proud to be one of the few original vendors on their list. We contract several hundred freelance musicians through our company. All are carefully screened professionals who have worked with us for many years.

We believe that honesty and integrity, joined with talented musical skills, make our company your finest choice.
